WHYY BOARD OF DIRECTORS ELECTS NEW MEMBERS
TERESA B. BAZEMORE, MICHAEL N. CASTLE AND CHARLES P. PIZZI

PHILADELPHIA, April 2, 2012 — Teresa B. Bazemore, Michael N. Castle and Charles P. Pizzi have been elected to WHYY's Board of Directors, announced Bill Marrazzo, president and chief executive officer of WHYY.

Teresa B. Bazemore of Penn Valley, Pa., is president of Radian Guaranty and responsible for leading the strategic planning, business development, policy issues and operations of the mortgage insurance business line. A graduate of Columbia Law School, Bazemore held leadership positions at Nexstar Financial Corporation and DLA Piper. She is a member of the Mortgage Insurers of America Executive Committee and trustee at the Research Institute for Housing America. She is a board member of Public Radio Capital.

Former two-term governor (1985 to 1992) and record nine-term Congressman for Delaware (1993 to 2011), Michael N. Castle of Wilmington, Del., has been a partner at DLA Piper since 2011. During his time in Congress, Castle was a member of the Education Committee and House Committee on Financial Services, where he had a key role in welfare reform, campaign finance reform and the balanced budget act..

Charles P. Pizzi of Philadelphia is a retired president and chief executive officer of the Tasty Baking Company of Philadelphia. With a long history of civic, business and government leadership in the Delaware Valley, Pizzi has served as president and chief executive officer of the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and commerce director for Philadelphia. He is a graduate of LaSalle University and the University of Pennsylvania and the 2010 recipient of the William Penn Award.

"On behalf of the entire WHYY Board of Directors, it is an honor to welcome our new members," said Gerard H. Sweeney, chairman of the board. "Each brings a wealth of unique experience that will help position WHYY for continued success and to better serve the community in the years to come."

Bill Marrazzo, president and chief executive officer of WHYY, said: "It gives me great pleasure to welcome our new board members. As we continue to grow and explore ways to connect with Delaware Valley residents, these local leaders will be of particular value in helping WHYY achieve long-term goals as the region's leading public media service."
