WHYY BOARD OF DIRECTORS ELECTS BENITO CACHINERO-SÁNCHEZ

PHILADELPHIA, September 27, 2012 — Benito Cachinero-Sánchez has been elected to WHYY's Board of Directors, announced Bill Marrasso, president and chief executive officer of WHYY.

Cachinero-Sánchez is senior vice president of human resources at DuPont in Wilmington, Del. He has held a range of human resources leadership positions with progressive responsibilities throughout his career. Prior to joining DuPont, Cachinero-Sánchez was vice president of human resources at Automatic Data Processing in Roseland, N.J., where he was responsible for human resources and organizational issues of a market-leading business with 50,000 employees around the world. Additionally, his previous experiences involved human resources leadership roles at several science-based businesses, including Johnson & Johnson.

"On behalf of the entire WHYY Board of Directors, it is an honor to welcome Benito," said Gerard H. Sweeney, chairman of the board. "He brings a wealth of experience that will help position WHYY for continued success and to better serve the community in the years to come."

Marrasso said: "It gives me great pleasure to welcome Benito to the WHYY Board of Directors. As we continue to grow and explore ways to connect with Delaware Valley residents, he will be valuable in helping WHYY achieve long-term goals as the region's leading public media service."

"Community engagement is important to both DuPont and me," Cachinero said. "I look forward to assisting WHYY advance its mission and strengthen its services to our community."
