Terry Gross of Fresh Air Goes Off Air at Keswick Theater November 2

PHILADELPHIA, September 30, 2014 —Peabody Award-winning host of WHYY-FM's Fresh Air, Terry Gross, will be at Keswick Theater on Sunday, November 2, from 8:00 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. for Off Air with Fresh Air.

At Off Air with Fresh Air, Gross will share stories of hosting Fresh Air and play clips of some of her favorite and most interesting interviews. After her talk, the audience is invited to give Gross a taste of her own medicine during a question-and-answer session. Visuals during the presentation have been contributed by the late Pulitzer Prize-winning editorial cartoonist, Tony Auth.

“Terry has been a vital part of WHYY for more than 30 years. Her interviews combine intelligence, curiosity, courage and most of all, heart,” said Bill Marrazzo, WHYY president and CEO. “Listening to Terry on air is always a treat, but attending one of her rare public appearances is something else entirely.”

Prior to her on-stage appearance, Gross will attend a VIP reception at Keswick Theater from 6:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. VIP tickets entitle guests to a catered reception and “the best seats in the house” during Gross’s lecture. Space is limited for the VIP reception. VIP reception and lecture ticket package is $200 and includes a $50 membership to WHYY. Regular tickets start at $25 for WHYY members, $35 for non-members. For more information and to register, visit WHYY.org/events or call the Keswick Theater box office at 215-572-7650.
