WHYY Hosts 5th Annual Foodie Fundraiser Event: “Best of the Chefs: Brunch Edition”

PHILADELPHIA, February 16, 2016 – WHYY’s annual “Best of the Chef culinary competition is waking up early this year. The “Brunch Edition” takes place on Saturday, April 2, from 11:00 a.m. to 1 p.m. at WHYY in Philadelphia. A battle among some of Delaware Valley’s top chefs, the event will feature the best comfort brunch food with participants deciding the winner.

Serving favorites from fluffy pancakes to decadent omelets, the event spotlights the rich cultural delights of the Philadelphia region. Local restaurants and businesses will stir up their most delicious and impressive creations, sampler style. Attendees will then cast their votes for several different award categories. This year, awards include ‘Best Pancake,’ ‘Best French Toast,’ ‘Best Omelet,’ and ‘Best Overall.’

The popular event, serving over 200 people last year, highlights the latest and greatest happenings in the gastronomic world throughout the area.

“We love this annual event as it brings together the most impressive, creative chefs behind local businesses with our members,” said Brittany Smith, WHYY community relations coordinator. “This year, we are very excited to be focusing the program on brunch, one of the biggest foodie trends happening in the region. It will be a competition full of great food and fun.”

Information and tickets to the “Best of the Chefs: Brunch Edition” event are available at WHYY.org/events. Proceeds support WHYY programs and services.
