The Truth, the Whole Truth and Nothing but the Truth

The World Affairs Council of Philadelphia Partners with WHYY TV and American Public Television (APT) to Launch Series Presenting Nonpartisan Views on Today's Toughest Issues

PHILADELPHIA, PA – March 2, 2016 - The World Affairs Council of Philadelphia – a private, nonprofit, nonpartisan organization and premier public policy platform – announced that it will expand its programming from hosting live speakers and panels to producing a television series. The Whole Truth, a 30-minute program on WHYY featuring varying guest panels, is hosted by David Eisenhower – historian, author, professor and grandson of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower. The show will air in markets across the county

For more than 66 years, the World Affairs Council of Philadelphia has presented leaders from across the world. In partnership with WHYY and APT, The Whole Truth brings the Council's style of civil, thoughtful and enlightening debate on critical issues to public television in a holistic, nonpartisan format.

"Most television shows on today's pressing issues are like political ping-pong matches and heated exchanges of partisan talking points," said Craig Snyder, President and CEO of The World Affairs Council of Philadelphia. "The Whole Truth takes a unique, debate-style approach to exploring pressing world affairs in a nonpartisan way, which has been the cornerstone of our organization for decades. Now, we have the opportunity to present these important matters to a wider audience."

"The Whole Truth is a powerful program, both on a local and national level," said William Marrasso, President and CEO of WHYY. "We're thrilled to be the presenting station within the
