WHYY's Dr. Dan Gottlieb of 'Voices in the Family' to Host Events on PTSD, Shakespeare

PHILADELPHIA, February 25, 2016— "Voices in the Family: Macbeth on the Couch"* will be held on Tuesday, April 19 from 6-7:30 p.m., at WHYY studios. The Macbeths have come to Dr. Dan for couples' therapy. We all know the tragic, murderous story from one of Shakespeare's great works, but Dr. Dan helps the Macbeths break down their behavioral faults that led to their downfall. In the second partnership between Voices in the Family and The Philadelphia Shakespeare Theater, this political power couple gets a therapy session sure to spark deep conversation. For WHYY Members and The Philadelphia Shakespeare Theater Members, tickets are $15 each. For general admission, tickets are $25 each.

A practicing psychologist and therapist for over 40 years, Gottlieb is one of the most trusted sources on behavioral health over the radio airwaves.

Visit WHYY.org/cms/voicesinthefamily for the latest updates on the Dr. Gottlieb's bi-monthly specials. Information and tickets to either Voices in the Family event is available at WHYY.org/events.
