WHYY-TV TO BROADCAST “FIRST SPECIAL REPORT: STATE OF THE STATE” JAN. 21 AND REACTION PIECE DURING FOLLOWING NIGHT’S FIRST

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 13, 2010 — WHYY-TV will present “First Special Report: State of the State” at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 21. The program will contain Delaware Gov. Jack Markell’s complete address to the Legislature and will be followed by a special First program Friday, Jan. 22, featuring a reaction piece to the governor’s speech.

WHYY-TV will broadcast Markell’s 2 p.m. address closer to prime time to give a greater number of Delawareans an opportunity to watch.

Markell’s address will also be available on WHYY’s “Delaware News” Web page, www.whyy.org/delaware. Content supplementary to First reports and roundtable discussions is also available on the page.

Markell was a guest for First’s “First Person” segment Jan. 8. He said his primary goals are to improve the state’s economic climate and create jobs, make government more cost effective and improve schools.

Hosted by Stephanie Aldrich, Tom Byrne and Cook, First is broadcast at 5:30 and 10 p.m. Fridays on WHYY-TV and rebroadcast at 5:30 p.m. Mondays on WHYY-TV and 11 a.m. Saturdays and 6 p.m. Sundays on WHYY’s Y Info channel. Beginning Jan. 17, First will also be rebroadcast at 11:30 a.m. Sundays on WHYY-TV. First is also available to stream using WHYY’s video player at www.whyy.org/video.
