WHYY'S DELAWARE TONIGHT TO BROADCAST SPECIAL TAX-TIP SEGMENTS

PHILADELPHIA, March 18, 2009 — With tax-filing deadlines looming, WHYY's Delaware Tonight will continue its focus on helping taxpayers get through the filing process by broadcasting four special segments Tuesdays through April 14, the day before Tax Day.

Following are summaries of the content of each segment:

- March 24
 - Advantages of e-filing
 - Caution signs when hiring a tax professional
- March 31
 - Internet tax scams
 - Unsolicited e-mail from someone claiming to be from the Internal Revenue Service
 - Social Security tax tips
- April 7
 - Man-on-the-street interviews with tax-filing procrastinators
 - Applying for an automatic filing extension
- April 14
 - Additional information on tracking rebates
 - Estimates on the number of taxpayers who e-filed and those who hired tax professionals in Delaware and nationally

Produced by WHYY and providing in-depth analysis, features and special reports, Delaware Tonight is the only television news program broadcast from the First State, for the First State. It is broadcast from 5 to 5:30 p.m. on WHYY TV (analog and 12.1) and 6:30 to 7 p.m. on Y Info. Delaware Tonight is also broadcast on Comcast's on-demand service and may be viewed on WHYY's Web site.
